Do We Mix Politics and Religion....

There is an old saying which goes, "Things never really change." In today's Gospel we discover that 2000 years ago people were discussing the same topics we discuss today, politics and religion. There are those who say one shouldn't mix politics with religion but Jesus seems to indicate otherwise. He admits they are separate issues but also makes it clear that God must be considered and, as He has said in other situations, God's laws are primary.

This discussion comes at a good time because in a few days we will be deciding for whom we will vote. Jesus is very clear in saying, "Repay to Caesar what it Caesar's and repay to God what is God's." And so, the question arises, "what is due God?".....Sacraments, Ten Commandments etc.

When Jesus outlined the commandments He gave us an exact description of what is God's. For example, He said, "Thou shalt not kill." God is the giver of life and it is not the province of a government to determine who dies and who lives. Some politicians running for office are saying that the modern Caesar, our federal government, has the right to make that decision. But Jesus, in his remarks in the Gospel says "give to God what belongs to God.....that's life." So, do we mix politics and our religion?

God bless,
Fr Prem

10th Anniversary of the Canonisation of St Mary of the Cross Saturday 17 October On this anniversary we remember Mary MacKillop, our first Saint who was in every way a wonderful Australian and Catholic. May we seek 'fresh courage with hope' as we recall the words of St Pope John Paul II: 'learn from her to be a gift of love and compassion for one another, for all Australians and for the world. View, use or download the booklet for free: Prayer booklet (or visit the website <https://www.sosj.org.au/>)

Catholic Mission One of the constant messages that the team at Catholic Mission receive from missionaries around the world is 'thank you'. The people that we support, with the generosity of our donors, know how blessed they are by the Church here in Australia. When you contribute to the Catholic Mission appeal this weekend, you can be assured that you, your parish and others like it, will be remembered in prayer by those in places like Cambodia. Whether you give through a text message (Text the word GIVE to 0488 854 436, enter your parish name in the notes and follow the prompts), donate online (catholicmission.org.au/Cambodia) or give via the traditional appeal envelope, you are helping missionaries like Bishop Kike reach out and bring life to some of the most needy people in the world. On behalf of all of them, we, like Paul, give thanks.

Garden Working Bee - The gardens and grounds are in need of a tidy up. We need helpers on SATURDAY 24th

October from 7:30am to 9:00am. Please bring along tools, hats and sunscreen. Water will be provided. If anyone has a trailer available to take rubbish to the dump that would be appreciated. Remember many hands make light work. If you are not available on Saturday but would like to help out, you are welcome to come and weed and tidy the Garden of Reflection or Columbarium area at any time that suits you!!

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he replied, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's,' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'
